

Agreement on the warranty terms and conditions

The goods delivered in the relevant storing conditions must have 3 (three) years warranty period.

During the warranty period in case of reveal the defects by the purchaser representative(s) or invited experts, the supplier is obliged to replace the defected item with own resources in the reasonable term specified by the purchaser, but no more then 20 (twenty) business days after written notification by the purchaser.

Requirements specified by the warranty conditions, are valid during the whole warranty period despite the Contract term expiration.

Goods defect means rights or/and item defect, factory fault, lost of characteristics or other operational features in normal operational or/and storing conditions specified by the Contract and etc.

Signatures and stamp of the bidder
